REMINDER

While private parties may be scheduled for the Club House or Community Room, there can be no exclusive use of any CRTE common areas. All owners may have access to all common areas at all times, according to The Rules We Live By. This usually creates no problem as owners not invited to an affair traditionally have not accessed private parties and will honor the privacy of the party. Notices that it is a private party may be posted. Also, these areas are to be used for social and recreational activities only. No outside groups are allowed to use any common facilities.
